

Yesterday Comic-Con International announced it would sell only single-day badges for this year's event, with the Preview Night option only being available to those who buy passes for all four days. The change brought questions, the biggest being "Why?" — and on their blog organizers provided an explanation. "The decision to move from a 4-Day [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/01/comic-con-international-explains-elimination-of-four-day-badges/>