

Comics sales | ICv2 crunches the January numbers and calculates that just one comic, Batman #27, sold more than 100,000 copies in January, something that hasn't happened since August 2011; this follows a weak December in which only three comics broke the 100,000 mark. The retail news and analysis site also lists the top 300 [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/02/comics-a-m-just-one-comic-broke-100000-copy-mark-in-january/>