

Since the new Ms. Marvel was announced in November as Kamala Khan, the 16-year-old daughter of Pakistani immigrants, there's been a lot of discussion about the significance of the character, both to Muslim readers and to comics. But journalist Shehryar Warraich takes the conversation a step further, by soliciting the opinions of Pakistanis. The United [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/01/in-pakistan-hopes-are-mostly-high-for-the-new-ms-marvel/>