

A South Carolina Senate committee on Wednesday rejected a plan to cut the budgets of two state universities as punishment for selecting gay-themed books, including Alison Bechdel's graphic novel Fun Home, for their summer-reading programs. The Associated Press reports that although Senate Majority Leader Harvey Peeler recommended adopting the House's $70,000 cuts, the Finance Committee [...]

Read more: <http://robot6.comicbookresources.com/2014/05/sc-senate-panel-rejects-bid-to-punish-colleges-over-gay-themed-books/>