Have you ever wanted to own your own Batmobile? Well, here's your opportunity to do just that. All you need is a boatload of money. It seems the Batmobile from Batman Returns has went up for auction on eBay. The starting bid is $299,000 but if you choose to bypass the auction process, you can buy it now for a measly $499,000. This Batmobile is powered by a high performance Chevrolet 350 - cubic inch engine. Solicitation via USA Today... This car runs and drives great and has upgraded fuel injection, and 8-gallon Harwood fuel cell, Monroe air shocks, Mickey Thompson Indy Profile L-60x15 front and Sportsman 33x19.50 15LT rear tires with the famous Batman hubs. Both the front and rear of the car have full hydraulics, making it very easy to load and unload from it's NEW 2010 Custom trailer (included with your Batmobile).
