

After the reveal earlier this week that Jason Patric and Lucy Punch will play the two lead characters in Powers, yet another actress has joined the cast. Here's what writer Brian Michael Bendis reportedly told the Sirius Radio Show Geektime in a recent interview. "A couple of weeks ago, we cast a woman named Carly Foulkes to be Retro Girl. You're sitting there going, 'Who's that?' That is the super, super cute T-Mobile girl." Retro Girl plays a major part in the first volume of the comic book series (actually entitled, "Who Killed Retro Girl?") indicating that the TV show will be a pretty faithful adaptation.
