

Moviehole have been tipped off that voice-over auditions for the Nicholas Cage starring, Neveldine/Taylor directed Ghost Rider flick are happening in LA. Producers are after Romanian speaking actors to do a voice over, as well as record some ADR for the picture. So, if you speak Romanian and think you have a cool voice, you're in with a shot! No info on exactly where or when these auditions are taking place as yet, but I'm sure you can find out if you're really interested.
