

Talking to Speakeasy (part of The Wall Street Journal) on the set of the movie last year, British actor Mark Strong once again talked about his role as the soon to be villainous, Sinestro. While we've already heard a fair bit from him these past few months, there are a few more interesting tidbits in the following excerpts which shed some more light on both the character and behind-the-scenes effects that were used to bring him to life on the big screen. On The Relationship Between Hal, Sinestro And The Other Corps: Kilowog is his physical trainer and Tomar Re is his spiritual guide, but I think Sinestro doesn't really put him through his paces in terms of training as such. There is a scene where they meet on what are called the training platforms where Tomar
