

Yes, we know they are expensive but that is not our fault! We have to pay through the nose to get them which is why we haven't carried them up until now. We have been getting so many requests for them we just couldn't hold off any longer. We just received our first selection of these shirts earlier this week and got them up on the site a few days ago. We have them in both Men's and Women's sizes and will be getting a lot more in the coming weeks. Made from 100% Cotton, this blue t-shirt features a cute little Silver Surfer....donning swim trunks and surfing across an actual body of water while...instigating a potential shark attack! This particular image of the Silver Surfer is rendered by designer Simone Legno as part of the popular, playful, Tokidoki character aesthetic. Tokidoki means "sometimes" in Japanese.
