

Many of you will remember a couple weeks ago we posted the story claiming that the relatively unknown actor Adam Harris was in the running for Lex Luthor in Zack Snyder's upcoming movie 'Man of Steel'. The report even went so far as to claim that he has met with Snyder and had gone through a couple stages of auditioning already. Earlier today I received an e-mail containing these images that are supposedly from a recent photoshoot that Adam Harris was apart of for the role. However it remains to be seen whether these are from an official cast shoot, or just something the actor put together himself trying to campaign for the role. These are definitely new pictures because as many of you will remember when the first story broke that it was nearly impossible to find any pictures of the actor. I'll leave it up to you guys to decide but
