

Here's some good news for you readers out there living in Pittsburgh, you have the chance to be a part of one of the most anticipated upcoming CBM's, Christopher Nolan's The Dark Knight Rises. This new casting call has been sent out looking for Pittsburgh residents who want to play "Victims and Perpetrators within a city besieged by crime and corruption". They're basically looking for anybody who wants to participate as long as you're over 18 and of course willing to star in one of the biggest CBM's ever. Thanks to the folks over at Batman-News.com for the heads up. A Warner Bros. Film requires extras to play as Victims and Perpetrators within a city besieged by crime and corruption. Take part in the urban action adventure ripping through the streets of Pittsburgh from July 28th through August 21st When: Sat. June 11th: 9am – 1pm and 2pm – 5pm Sun. June 12th: 10am – 1pm

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/Dustin03Comics/news/?a=38708&t=The_Dark_Knight_Rises_Casting_Call_For_Pittsburgh