

Speaking shortly with ComingSoon.net, the star & villain of Marvel's epic tale of Thor, Chris Hemsworth and, for the first time since confirmation, Tom Hiddleston speaks briefly on reprising their roles in Joss Whedon's superhero team-up flick The Avengers! "We start shooting in a couple of weeks," Hemsworth said, "which I knew that we were going to do when I signed on for 'Thor,' but it's certainly on the forefront now as the next challenge with another big group of actors that I admire hugely. I'm very excited." "I will be [heading to Albuquerque] soon," Hiddleston smiled, "That is a dead-set certainty. I'm so excited. Loki has big plans... and it's going to take eight superheroes to stop him this time as opposed to just his chunky brother." With only 7 confirmed 'Avengers', who do you think the eighth could be? Anyhow, to find out what 'Sif' actress Jaimie Alexander unrevealingly had to say
