Ah, Christmas. A time for giving nice things, getting nice things, and over indulging to the point of bursting! The holidays in general can take such a strain, it is no wonder that it only happens once a year and during a cold and dark month. Some people look forward to the season, while others find a reason to dread the whole bloody ordeal. Whatever camp you may find yourself in, one of the first questions somebody will invariably ask is 'What did you get for Christmas?' Maybe you were good this year and you got a lot of things...better guess is you were terrible and you got a giant piece of anthracite coal, freshly dug out of the ground. Just kidding! We all know that you guys are one the best behaved internet groups, as far as internet groups go! Something about the internet and anonymity? Either way, we here
