OFFICIAL SYNOPSIS: On their first official assignment – a covert recon mission to the venom-producing island of Santa Prisca – the team finds itself caught in a struggle between the deadly Bane and cult leader Kobra for possession of something far worse than they suspected. BRANDON VIETTI: Greg and I are really excited about this episode in particular, because I think this is the first episode that really delivers what we promised the show would be. This is a young superhero team on a covert ops mission behind enemy lines, and it has a different feel than your average show. This one really sets the tone for the series. GREG WEISMAN: It's going to establish how the team does business, who's going to be in charge, what their M.O. is going to be and what tools they have in their toolkits, so to speak. This is a big sort of,
