

Directors Don Hall and Chris Williams are both long-time members of the Disney animation team. Hall started out working on 1999's Tarzan before contributing to The Emperor's New Groove, The Princess and the Frog and Winnie the Pooh, which he also directed. Williams also worked on The Emperor's New Groove, as well as Mulan, Brother Bear, and Bolt...

Read more: http://www.mania.com/mania-interview-don-hall-chris-williams_article_140456.html